Our records reflect that you have not been admitted to practice in this Court. This court requires that any attorney who is not a member of the Bar of this court but who is admitted to practice before the United States District Court for the district in which such person resides or regularly practices by law, may, upon request, be admitted pro hac vice by an order of any judge of this court. This court also requires that the motion contain a Certificate of Good Standing from the United States District Court in which the attorney is admitted to practice. Any such attorney who appears as counsel by filing any pleading or paper in any case pending in this court must within ten (10) days thereafter apply for admission pro hac vice as set out herein; or be admitted to this court generally.
